

In 1988, Gordon Dalbey's first book Healing the Masculine Soul pioneered the growing Christian men's movement, by calling men to a Godly strength. His ground-breaking 1991 'Focus on the Family' radio interviews drew a listener response in the top 10% of the show's history, and were re-broadcast in 1998 and 2003 as "classics".

Gordon's second book, Sons of the Father, offers healing for the father-wound, which cripples men today as husbands, fathers, workers and friends.

His third and most recent book, Fight Like a Man, shows how Father God transforms us with His truth and grace into warriors for His Kingdom.

A popular speaker at conferences and retreats, and on radio and TV shows, Gordon has ministered throughout the US and around the world. Gordon's articles have also appeared in a wide variety of magazines and newspapers, including 'Los Angeles Times' and 'Readers Digest'.

Gordon now divides his ministry time between writing, conference speaking, and a private practice in prayer ministry. He lives in Santa Barbara, California, with his wife and son.

John Eldridge, author of Wild at Heart, writes: "A number of years ago, at a point in my own journey when I felt more lost than ever, I heard a talk given by Gordon Dalbey, who had just written 'Healing the Masculine Soul'. He raised the idea that despite a man's past and the failures of his own father to initiate him, God could take him on that journey to provide what was missing. A hope rose within me."

Brian Doerksen, Songwriter/Producer of Come Now is the Time to Worship: "Gordon Dalbey's teaching on manhood has touched me deeper than any other. Listening to Gordon teaching at a men's retreat was like constant 'explosions of revelation'. Hearing Gordon in person is an opportunity not to be missed by anyone who wants a deeper understanding of what it means to be a Christian man."

Paul Ryan, Ellel Ministries Australia Ltd. : "There are many great ministries available for men today, but what sets Gordon Dalbey apart is that where most other ministries rightly show men what they should be DOING for the Kingdom... Gordon highlights most men simply cannot do it – because we carry unrecognised wounds that rob us of the strength to sustain what it is the Father requires... That is, until a restoration path has been cleared to help us recognise and face our wounds, which Gordon is brilliantly gifted and called by Abba Father to lead us into. "
