TEACHING DAY: HEALING FOR THE HUMAN SPIRIT

"The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18)

This exciting teaching day is all about discovering who we really are and how God alone can meet the innermost needs of our hearts.

The life-imparting teaching, testimonies and key principles presented for moving into wholeness will be of great encouragement to all. In particular, this course will be of immense help to all those who feel weighed down and crushed in spirit, but desire a closer walk with God and improved relationships with others.

All those involved in counselling and prayer ministry will find the course most beneficial. An understanding of how the human spirit can be damaged and how to bring God's healing to this part of a person's being is of vital importance as one seeks to minister God's love to hurting people.

DATE AND TIME

Teaching Day

Netherlands

Overview

This teaching day comes out of extensive ministry experience to deeply wounded and broken lives.

Topics covered include:

What is the human spirit?

Essential foundational teaching defining the role and function of our God-created human spirit.

How the human spirit can be damaged

We will look at how the human spirit can be wounded and crushed by the attitude and behaviour of others, together with the words they direct against us.

The consequences of damage to the human spirit

Identifies how crushing of the human spirit results in lack of creativity and sustained vision or fulfillment in life.

How the human spirit can be restored

Explains how God's heart is to bring back life into our spirits.

ABOUT DENISE CROSS

Denise and her husband David are centre directors of Glyndley Manor, an Ellel centre in the south of England. They have three adult children. Denise trained as a maths teacher, but after a 'Damascus experience' she now teaches on the wonderfully logical truth of her Lord. Her passion is to revive the hearts of passive believers and to help them reach out for the abundant life that God promised to His children.
